NAPsaC 2024-25 Goals:

Present Two (2) Internationally themed Zoom presentations

Consider how to support War Trauma and recovery

Getting to know APSA—Dan Prezant; Bonnie Buchele: presented a thorough view of APSA's history and current organization, including the separate American Board which provides certification. NAPsaC Board was actively engaged.

A. Approval of April minutes ; Unanimous approval

B. President Elect report: report on TF2. N American Representatives to IPA Board were invited to this meeting. Most were able to be present. Brit-Marie Schiller, the Co-Chair of the IPA TF2 Committee, gave the history and ultimate state of the report. Reps discussed their views, with much discussion ensuing amongst Board Members.

The last Town Hall to have Membership discuss TF2 will be held July 6 2024, followed shortly after by IPA vote. (registration and TF@ document on IPA Members page)

C. Program committee: Chaos Unleashed: Global Chaos Crashing into the Consulting Room
November 16, 9-12 Pacific; 1-3 Eastern; 4-7 GMT.

a. Discussion group for candidates to follow TBD. Fees were discussed for Candidates: to be minimal, with a “limited scholarship” to be offered.

b. Proposed group conference. Sue Kolod attended and reported favourably on the recent Group Relations Conference in Thessalonika. The history of group relations and where its positioned in IPA was also discussed. The possibility of NAPsaC hosting a group relations conference was proposed.

D. Treasurer report: dues raise vote will take place in November 24, 2024. Mary Kay O’Neil asked that dues for Canadians be in Canadian dollars.
